

SAVINGS CAMPAIGN GETS UNDER WAY

WE'LL SOON BE NINETY, FOLKS

This week The Newmarket Era enters upon its ninetieth (90th) year.

Founded in 1852, The Era has had a long and honorable career. From 1854 to 1934 (with the exception of one period of a few months) The Era was edited by two members of one family, Erastus Jackson, one-time wardens of York county, and his son, Lyman Jackson, who died in 1934.

The above picture of ten years ago shows (left to right): Lyman Jackson, who temporarily retired as editor, Erastus Jackson, his father, who arrived in Newmarket on the first train to pull into the Newmarket station, and Arthur Hawkes, who took over The Era for a short time. These stalwart men have all gone to their rewards.

Army Team Defeats Tanners 4-3 In Mercantile Series

OFFICE SPECIALTY TAKES TOWN 5-2 IN NIGHT'S SECOND GAME

Last Friday evening's action in the mercantile league saw the Davis Leather taking on the military training camp team, with the army nosing out the tanners in the final period to take a 4-3 verdict.

The tanners were holding down a comfortable 3-1 lead going into the final period, but the army squad turned on the pressure and had the count tied up in short order and went on to notch the winning goal towards the end of the period.

The marksmen for the Davis Leather squad were Joe Peat, Bohmer Groves and Bob McCabe, while for the M.T.C. Ed. Smith, B. Company, F. Smith, B. Company, Mitchell, D. Company, and McLaughlin, D. Company, turned in the army scores.

Line-up: M.T.C., goal, Marshall; def., Leigh, Abbott; centre, Hooper; wings, Pierce, Morris; alternates, F. Smith, Ed Smith, Goodwin, Mitchell, Skinner.

HOSPITAL HAS RECORD NUMBER OF PATIENTS

The largest number of patients in the history of the hospital, an increase of 220 over the previous year, was reported for 1940 at the annual meeting of the York county hospital board in the council chambers on Friday evening.

There were 218 births in the hospital during the year, which set up another record.

Secretary-Treasurer J. J. McCaffrey also reported a daily average of 32 patients, a total of 11,669 hospital days, and a per capita cost of $227.17.

Mr. McCaffrey reported an improvement over the previous year in the hospital finances, with a net profit for the year of $237.17.

The following directors were elected for three years: J. S. Law, K. M. R. Silver, and G. L. Manning.

PUBLIC GIVES DONATIONS TO WAR VICTIMS' FUND

Public donations received to date by the British War Victims' Fund sponsored by the Newmarket Veterans' Association are: Mrs. W. L. Bosworth, afternoon tea, $45.50; Cherokee club, $25; dance at the Walnut-Rendezvous, Roy Middlebrook, $25; Wm. White, $5; F. R. Mabey, $5.

Next Tuesday 34 boxes will be sent from the local Veterans' association to the Newmarket men overseas. Each box will contain 1 tin chocolate syrup, 1 stick shaving soap, 1 pair socks, 1 khaki handkerchief, 1 box Oxo, 2 packages gum, 1 large chocolate bar, 1 package razor blades, 1 bar soap, 1 package tea bags, 1 tube toothpaste, 1 pencil, 1 lb. tin butter.

Each box weighs nine pounds, which is the maximum weight for such parcels.

McLaughlin, Hillen; manager, Sergeant Mecklin.

Davis Leather: goal, A. Smith; defence, J. Peat, W. Townsley; centre, B. Groves; wings, R. McCabe, H. Brown; alternates, G. Haskett, W. Haskett, A. Harden, F. Lusted, P. Townsley.

In the second game of the night the strong Office Specialty squad, last year's runners-up, in their first time out this season took the highly favored Town team into camp to the tune of 5-2. This was a wide open, heavy-checking game, with the Specialty gang converting their chances into goals, while the Towners, with almost as many opportunities, were unable to beat Gardiner in the Office Specialty nets.

Gardiner, Boyd and Barker turned in mighty efforts for the winners with the rest of the squad showing plenty of fight for their first time out.

For the towners Hartford, Dennis and Blair copped the honors, with the rest of the gang right on their heels.

Next Tuesday, Feb. 11, will see last year's finalists tangle and, as usual, it can be expected that these two teams will provide plenty of fireworks. There will only be a single game on this occasion.

Camp Still Awaits Official Word On New Training Plan

NEW PLAN MAY HANDLE 12
FOUR-MONTH CLASSES
A YEAR

PRESENT STRIPES

Although announcements have been made at Ottawa concerning changes in the militia training camps, no official word has yet been received at the Newmarket camp, Capt. E. B. Dodgson, adjutant, told The Era today.

From the Ottawa announcements various surmises have been made. One is that 300 men will come to the Newmarket camp on March 15, and that 300 men will be added each month until the total reaches 1,200, when there will be 300 leaving and 300 arriving every month. The Ottawa announcement was that there would be 12 classes a

AURORA PLAY LOCALS IN LAST GROUP GAME

Aurora and Newmarket will meet in the local arena tonight at 8 o'clock in the last game of the group schedule. The two teams are all tied up for group leadership and tonight's game promises to be a real battle for No. 1 position.

It is possible that members of the training staff here who have special training may be moved to other camps. The Newmarket camp has been strictly an infantry training camp.

The last of the 30-day groups leaves camp on Saturday. Forty men received lance-corporal's stripes yesterday.

Chaplain Pays Tribute To Churchill, 'Raised By God'

POSTMASTER-GENERAL PRE SENTS FLAGS TO
ST. JOHN'S

Two flags presented by Col. W. P. Mulock, M.P., postmaster-general, were dedicated at an impressive service at St. John's Roman Catholic church on Sunday morning.

Major the Rev. John Knox, O.B.E., senior chaplain for M. D. No. 2, preached the sermon and celebrated mass, after which he blessed the flags presented by Col. Mulock.

Master Patrick Farrell, son of Regimental Sergeant-Major P. J. Farrell of the military training camp, sang two solos. Mr. Saunders of Toronto, sang two solos.

Many of the congregation, including 75 soldiers from the camp, received holy communion. After the service breakfast was served to the soldiers who had been fasting.

"We are indebted to Postmaster-General Mulock for these flags," said Dr. Muckle. "Col. Mulock has always been very friendly towards us, and towards the whole community. There has always been a very friendly feeling between the Mulock family and Newmarket. We have an especially warm spot in our hearts for Sir William Mulock, the postmaster-general's grandfather."

Speaking on faith, Major Knox said that "in human affairs we need confidence, and in this day that confidence is on wings. We have critics on every corner who tell us the war will be lost, who tell us it may possibly be won, who say why didn't the Canadian government do this or do that. So we have these prophets of despair."

"Go to London and see His Majesty King George VI, accompanied by his beautiful counsel, wending his way in and out through the wreckage, and telling his people that all will be right. Go to England and see that grand man whom God has raised up. Churchill says: 'We shall win; we don't know how, but we shall win.'"

"We want men who will say: 'Send me! Send me to the front line, to fight that which is destructive of everything which we hold dear.'"

"Oh the pity of it, that there are those who hesitate. They must be at least prepared to deny themselves the luxuries of life."

"Thank God for that great leader. He is so big that he says of another, Churchill says of Beaverbrook, 'He seems at his best when things are worst.' Not a small man, not a petty man, not a jealous man—what a leader, he sees the best in others."

"He that loses his life for my sake shall find it."

THIEVES ENTER HOME, GET RINGS, STOCKINGS

When thieves entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris a week ago last Tuesday about 9 p.m., two diamond rings and several pairs of silk stockings were stolen. As yet no trace has been found of the stolen goods. Chief Constable J. E. Sloss was notified.

THANK VIVIAN UNIT

The Red Cross Society thanked this week the ladies of the Vivian unit for a splendid contribution of work: 15 quilts, one nightgown, five long-sleeved sweaters, four pairs of socks, six helmets, seven pairs of two-way mitts.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE SOUGHT BY COUNCIL

The town is asking the Ontario Employment Bureau to send a representative to Newmarket one day a week to interview and assist persons here looking for work.

The request, suggested by Councillor A. V. Higginson, took the form of a resolution at a town council meeting on Monday evening.

NEW INDUSTRIES FOR TOWN, IS COUNCIL HOPE

There will be a good chance of the town securing new industries at the conclusion of the war, when British industries will probably be moved to Canada, Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale suggested at a town council meeting on Monday evening.

Mr. Vale thought that the town would do better if it had a factory building to offer.

Councillor J. L. Spillette said that industries had passed the town by in the past because the town was not on the alert.

"It is really up to the council to give some money to the industrial committee," said Mr. Vale.

"You formulate a plan and we will see about some money," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales.

250 SKATERS ENJOY Y. P. U. SKATING PARTY

About 250 skaters enjoyed the Trinity United Y. P. U. skating party held at the local arena on Tuesday night.

Prizes were donated by Morrison's Men's Wear, H. E. Gilroy, Bell's drug store, Patterson's drug store, Best drug store, Loblaw Groceries, Pollock's shoe store and the Strand theatre.

The prize-winners were Mary McElroy, Michael Thompson, Kenneth Johns, Ann Wilson, Mrs. Howard Proctor, Miss Mabel Fisher, Miss Helen Campbell and Miss Edith Hawtin.

Dogs of War, Cats Too, Get To Be A Nuisance

Kind-hearted soldiers feeding the animals are responsible for the training camp's dog nuisance, Councillor Wm. Dixon said at a town council meeting Monday evening.

Wellington Curtis, pound-keeper, said that Capt. E. B. Dodgson, adjutant, had complained about the dogs about the camp.

"There are always dogs around a military camp," said Mr. Dixon, an old soldier himself. "The camp will have to solve its own problem."

There were also cats, and one cat had even blessed the camp with kittens, Mr. Curtis said.

Newmarket Accepts Challenge To Play Part In War Finance

BUSINESS MEN TAKE LEAD
IN SAVINGS PLEDGE
CAMPAIGN

START THIS WEEK

The war savings campaign swung into action this week, with P. J. Tod, recently retired Bank of Montreal manager, the aggressive chairman and commander-in-chief.

The spirit of the drive is well evidenced by the action of many merchants who in this issue of The Era have given part or all of their advertising space to a war savings message. Others will no doubt add their voices to the chorus as the February pledge month proceeds, but this week special attention is called to the messages sponsored by W. A. Brunton & Co., C. F. Willis, F. N. Chandler, Perrin's Flower Shop, Campbell's Book Store, W. C. Lundy, C. G. Wainman, H. M. Hooker, Smith's Hardware, Lindenbaum Outfitters, J. E. Nesbitt and H. E. Gilroy.

"The local war savings committee is endeavoring to extend a personal invitation to all residents of this district to buy war savings certificates," Mr. Tod told The Era.

Aurorans Lose To Redmen 4-3 In Erratic Encounter

NEW GOAL JUDGE PUT IN AFTER DECISION
CAUSES SCRAP

By RALPH M. ADAMS

With less than two minutes remaining the Poison Pair again came through to down the opposition, when Dickson picked up the pass from Gibbon and Broughton to put the reds in the drivers' seat, in Thursday night's encounter with the Aurora squad and enable the locals to win 4 to 3.

Although both teams had plenty of opportunity to tally, they blew their chances time after time when the goal-tenders were at their mercy.

In the third period the fans witnessed a little incident that left a slightly sour taste in their mouths when the reds scored a goal that went in and out but the Aurora goal judge wouldn't put on the light. Naturally a slight scrap ensued, but Morrison, the referee, wasn't for changing the official until the Newmarket bench asked twice for a new goal judge.

The game was more or less a see-saw affair, with the reds looking one minute like world-beaters and the next very ordinary, with the same applying to the blue-clad squad from the south. At times the Aurorans looked to out-play the locals by a wide margin and the next the reds would look as tho' the Sweeney lads didn't belong in the same league with them.

The first period was a close checking canto that gave neither team a chance to show what they could do offensively. However, the blueboys were the first to come through when Beaumont flipped a shot that glanced in off Myers' skate and beat Carr cold. At 17:25 Melnis tied the count on a pass from Phil Hamilton, the blonde winger picking up the pass to heave a tricky shot at Waddell that turned over and slipped under the goalie's arm. Broughton put the Redmen one up at 18:15, when he took the rubber at the face-off near the Aurora net and with three Aurorans draped on his neck sifted it past Waddell. Thus the scoring ended for the first period.

In the first half of the second period the rushing of Tunbridge for the Aurora squad was a real highlight as every time he ambled goalwards he was dangerous. Starke at 5:50 tied the score for the Sweeney clan with a corner shot that trickled in on Carr from the side of the net. Later in the period, with both teams short, Pearce and Myers resting for swinging at each other, Alexander put the blueboys up on a lone rush, beating Carr from close in. On the play, despite the score, the teams were fairly even, as the Redmen blew some swell chances (Page 5, Col. 6)

DICKSON GETS DECIDING GOAL STOPS AURORA'S
WINNING STREAK

By JACK PEPPIATT

In sixty minutes of play that was ragged and brilliant in turn, Newmarket Juniors defeated Aurora 4 to 3 last Thursday in the Newmarket arena. It was the first loss in the last five games for Aurora. The Redmen controlled the play for a greater part of the game and deserved to win.

Midway through the second period, Cliff Gunn was hit below the ribs with a wicked hickory and was off for the rest of the game. Newmarket carried on with eight men, including the goalie, after that, but managed to keep up a winning sweat and came out victorious.

Beaumont, of Aurora, scored the first goal in the first period. The Newmarket high school line then tied it up, Melnis from Jolley scoring. Merv. Broughton got the last goal in this period, after he had had two sure things muffed on him. The first period ended 2-1 for Newmarket and was ragged.

Starke tied the score early in the second. Gunn thought he had been given a penalty and he hesitated on the brink of either staying on the ice or going to the penalty box, when the referee assured him that if he had seemed to hand him a penalty it was only in fun. Soon after that, Gunn was hurt. Alexander made it 3-2 for Aurora on a long shot at the 14-minute mark. This completed the second period scoring.

The third period was strictly a Newmarket period. Gibbon tied the score on a brilliant lone-hand play and got a mighty cheer. What looked like a goal scored from a scramble in front of the Aurora net was disallowed by the referee. This set-back only fired the enthusiasm of Newmarket and they kept up their drive until Dickson got the winning counter a few minutes later. Dickson had been missing the goal by inches all night and he heaved a mighty satisfied sigh after this.

The Dickson-Broughton-Gibbon line played the star role for Newmarket, getting three of the four goals. Myers, the Pickering College lad, did a major share of the heavy work for Newmarket. He was the best defensive cog all night. Bone performed in his usually excellent style. Waddell, Alexander and Tunbridge were the best of the Aurora bunch.

Aurora: goal, Waddell; defence, Alexander, Tunbridge; forwards, Beaumont, Pearce, Mabley; subs, Stephens, Brown, Starke, Rogers, Borsford.

Newmarket: goal, Carr; defence, Myers, Bone; forwards, Melnis, Jolley, Hamilton; subs, Gibbon, Gunn, Broughton, Dickson, Mabey.

A CHANCE TO SHARE IN DIVIDENDS

It is not every firm that offers its employees a chance to purchase shares in the concern. That, however, is just what the Dominion government is doing in offering war savings certificates for sale. No doubt the dominating motive in the purchase of stamps and certificates will be the desire to contribute toward the de-Hitlerizing of Europe, but at the same time purchasers will be doing their own pockets a good turn. In the first place, the certificates bear a good rate of interest. In the second place, we are likely to face times that are economically worse than the present when this war is over and war savings will then do much to keep us on an even keel. In the third place, economizing to put money into war savings certificates will help keep down the cost of living now and head off war-time poverty—prices rising more rapidly than incomes. Buy war savings certificates in good advice—good for the individual, good for Canada.

"ON THE DOUBLE"

Prime Minister Mackenzie King has announced an expansion in Canada's military and naval wealth training plan.

Doubling the number of the training staff, the men in training and the training planes may be most impressive so far as the public is concerned, but the word "double" has another meaning which might be investigated profitably.

"On the double" in the army means speed, and it might be that the government—if it would study efficiency and speed—might achieve as much by resorting to the "double march" as it will achieve by the costly doubling of personnel and equipment.

A Newmarket boy who has been in the R.C.A.F. for some months writes home that he is still waiting to get down to business. He has been hunted around, been given injections, put on guard duty, and been inspected, ad nauseam. He counted as many as 60 inspectors in a week at his present training depot.

We don't criticize the government for that, but we do point out how extraordinarily difficult it is for a government to get things done quickly and efficiently. There are so many departments to go through, there are so many regulations (one of the interesting regulations of the R.C.A.F., we learned the other day, is that women may not visit R.C.A.F. flying fields or training stations), there are so many hands through which instructions must pass, that Ottawa's wishes may be much distorted before they are put into effect.

We will give another example, closer to home, of something not fairly called "war effort." Milk for the Newmarket training centre is not supplied by a Newmarket dairy, but is supplied by a Toronto dairy. Newmarket milk is pasteurized and is no different from Toronto milk, except that it costs less than Toronto milk. Toronto milk costs the government more on two scores, first, Toronto is in a different zone and the price is higher by the order of the Ontario milk control board, second, Toronto dairies have no license to deliver milk in Newmarket and so the government must take delivery of its milk in Toronto and transport it to Newmarket.

The army trucks which are tied up with this unnecessary carrying of milk (probably originating in this district) from Toronto to Newmarket are part of the government's "war effort." Those trucks might be helping with the African campaign.

Of course, the government may be paying in Toronto less than the milk control board price, as it is said to be doing in Barrie to supply Camp Borden, but if it is it could save proportionately more by buying in Newmarket. There is no reason for the public to pay for carrying milk from Newmarket to Toronto and then back to Newmarket, when there is ample pasteurizing equipment in Newmarket and Aurora.

In the interests of the war effort, the town of Newmarket might take action to prevent Toronto milk being brought into this municipality—carrying costs to Newcastle at the public expense.

THE CITY MAN TRIES TO HELP THE FARMER

When city newspapers in war-time discuss farm problems, it may be assumed that farm leaders and the infant Canadian Federation of Agriculture are making progress. After stating that the farmer is suffering from low prices as a result of the loss of continental overseas markets, the Toronto Telegram says that agriculturalists are mistaken in looking to bonuses as a solution of their problem, as the results of such a policy under the New Deal in the United States "were not inspiring." "Processing taxes cannot be applied on a list of agricultural products, nor can bonuses be paid on them out of taxes without a train of results which inevitably will hit the farmer leaving him no better off than he was before."

The Telegram is probably right, but in view of the fact that industrial communities are bonused by means of tariffs we can't see any alternative to bonusing farming communities too. As the Telegram says, "A rise in the price level in one spot will sooner or later raise it all around." Just as the bonusing of our manufacturers now increases the farmer's costs to the point of making farming unprofitable, so probably the bonusing of farming to the point of making it profitable would increase the cost of living in industrial centres and lead to demands for additional tariff protection—additional bonusing.

There would be little gain in the long run in bonusing both agriculture and industry. The merit in the present situation probably lies in the fact that one section of the population is bonused at the expense of another section. The country can't lift itself by its own bootstraps, but it can make life tolerable for one foot by putting the weight on the other. It would seem to us just as likely to lead to a solution of our problems to stop bonusing industry as to start bonusing agriculture. We can see, however, that the farmer has a far better chance to succeed in the latter program.

At the moment the Canadian farmer can argue that his problem is a result of the conquest of so many European countries by the Nazis, and that Canada should bonus him as a temporary war measure. When the war is over, there may be hope of at least a tariff union between the British Commonwealth and the United States. That would result in the lowering of the farmer's costs, and probably increase his markets, as a wider free trade area would tend to increase the prosperity of all the people in it, even though particular industries might suffer.

Lowering the farmer's production costs is a real contribution toward the solution of his problem, but not if the reduction is a per unit reduction achieved through greater productivity. The Telegram says, "Not higher farm prices, but lower production costs may yet be the salvation of many farmers," but the Telegram forgets its premise, that "the farming community is in serious trouble through the loss of valuable overseas markets," when it writes, "if by good husbandry and specialization he can increase the output of his farm and decrease his operating costs his net at the end of the year may leave him a fair recompense for his labors." That might help an individual, but the sad truth is that our society is so organized that farmers would help themselves more by widespread curtailment of production, that is, trade unionism on the farm. The individual farmer will serve himself best and his country best by joining the Canadian Federation of Agriculture and supporting its leaders in whatever policy they determine on, seeking government protection in the form of bonuses, the reduction of costs by easing the protection to other groups, the increase of farm prices through restriction of production, or any other united farm policy.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

THAT SIROIS ADVERTISEMENT

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

On page three appears an advertisement inserted by the Ontario government, which gives "the facts of the dominion-provincial conference on the Sirois report" recently held in Ottawa. Premier Hepburn has been unjustly criticized over his stand at the conference, but when readers peruse the "facts" they will realize his actions were justified.

"THESE ARE THE FACTS" -- BUT NOT ALL THE FACTS

(Bowmanville Statesman)

It is the policy of newspapers usually to refer to prominent advertisements in editorial columns. On page 3 is a full-page paid advertisement which announces "These are the facts . . . of conference on the Sirois report." But note the facts given by premiers outside of Ontario are meagre and picked with a purpose.

From column one of this government-paid advertisement we quote: "Those of us who believe in democracy abhor the very word propaganda because the circulation of ready-made opinions . . . is the most dangerous enemy of civilization." Propaganda usually omits important facts and telling arguments of others.

Equally concerned in the welfare of Canada and the empire at this particular time are other provinces.

It will be observed that speeches of other provincial premiers are pared to innocuous generalities.

Reaction of voters here who have seen advance copies of this page spread is just this: "Who pays for this item of political build-up which may run close to $10,000? Does it come out of the citizen's taxes or the party slush-fund?"

These questions will be repeatedly asked by those who have the time and fortitude to negotiate all this fine print.

The money thus spent would buy a lot of war savings certificates.

THEY'RE STILL ARGUING

(Orillia Packet and Times)

The feelings engendered by the recollections of a defeat that caused deep chagrin because it came as a complete surprise got the better of the Globe's veteran historical columnist, Mr. Fred Williams, on Tuesday, and he abandoned his usual objectivity in dealing with the overthrow of reciprocity in 1911. He pictured the politicians seizing an opportunity to haul out the old flag. But as a matter of fact, it was only when they found that a large section of the country was strongly opposed to the proposed treaty, and fearful as to its political and economic effect, that the Conservative politicians plucked up courage to join issue with the government.

The defeat of reciprocity in 1911 was a popular uprising which gave a final quietus to a movement which had been more or less active for a generation, to tie up Canada, politically and economically, to the United States. The movement had various names and guises, such as annexation, commercial union and unrestricted reciprocity. Canadians suspected that the reciprocity treaty was only another move in the same direction, and were confirmed in this suspicion by the attitude and speeches of some of the American politicians responsible for the treaty. The election of 1911 settled that question forever. Nobody on either side of the line ever talks of annexation as "Canada's manifest destiny" any longer. Reciprocity today is a pure matter of business. It has no political implications. There is, therefore, no inconsistency in the men who opposed the 1911 treaty taking a different attitude to proposals for closer co-operation in trade, or in military preparations, today.

The Common Round

WHO IS GREAT?

By Isabel Inglis Colville

I've listened, as I suppose most of you have, to discussions as to what makes a man or woman great—is it certain qualities of mind and heart? Is it certain combinations of circumstances, or is it the times in which they live?

As each person in a discussion of this kind usually holds fast to the opinion with which he started out, the listener being a free Canadian, usually does the same, even if he emerges from the vocal shower-bath a bit breathless, and, for a few moments, bewildered.

I have come to the conclusion that we call people great for two reasons: one group of people will look for the brilliancy of thought and action, which stands out against their own dark lives, like the sun bursting through clouds; another group which is struggling to accomplish something in some particular sphere of endeavor will look at those who have reached the top—though the sphere-sitters themselves may be looking to further climbing—and call them great.

There are some types of greatness which belong only to their own period—they live, they work and accomplish something for their own day and generation—and they are gone, and there are some types which "age cannot wither."

There are some forms of evil which every decent person loathes, and one of them is slavery.

And whether it be a Pharaoh on the throne of mighty Egypt, an Arab slave dealer, a Simon Legree inside or outside "Uncle Tom's Cabin," Herr Adolph Hitler or Benito Mussolini, they call forth the same detestation of their cruelty from which no rank, power or wealth can save them.

These men, in their lust for power—for greatness as they saw it—pulled down the structures of decency and brotherhood and took to themselves the prerogative of God—owning the body and soul of human beings.

Like poisons, most evils have an antidote—Moses was Pharaoh's. That ruler, to control his venomous hatred, lost the riches of his kingdom, his slaves, his army and his son, while Moses led his army of erstwhile slaves to a haven where he could lay in them the foundation of a new civilization, founded on God-given laws. Pharaoh sat on the greatest throne in the world; wealth and commerce, learning and culture flowed into his country, yet he fell short of greatness—he had his opportunity to be great and just and generous, so he fell and Moses rose—the greatest law-giver the

Between 40,000 and 80,000 men will be involved in the 1941 program for sending troops overseas, Hon. J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence, said in Ottawa on Monday.

The second successful "pick-a-back" landing in aviation history occurred at Lethbridge, Alberta, on Friday, when two twin-engine planes crashed in mid-air, locked together, one above the other, and their pilots landed safely.

Greek troops were within ten miles of Valona in Albania, on Monday, it was reported from Yugoslavia.

A 200-ton ghost ship beached itself in an English west-coast inlet over the weekend, after being abandoned hurriedly by its crew when fire broke out. The flames burnt out quickly and the ship travelled 60 miles to shore.

The Italians have abandoned their entire first line of defence on the Agordat-Barentu line in Eritrea and are in full retreat, it was reported on Tuesday.

Marshal Petain has refused Hitler's demands for the cession of the naval base of Bizerta and the transport of German troops to Tunisia, and is reported to have snuffed off German occupation of unoccupied France.

President Batista of Cuba escaped death in an assassination plot on Tuesday, it was reported. He put down an incipient revolt by arresting army and navy chiefs. There was no Nazi or Communist influence in the plot, it was believed.

Twenty-two waiting motorists were injured on Tuesday in Denver, Colo., when the boiler and cab of a train exploded at a downtown crossing.

Starting on March 15, four-months compulsory training will replace 30-day periods, Premier King announced this week. Only those of 21 will receive such training, it is expected, and they will train side by side with those volunteering for active service.

world has ever seen.

The poisonous Simon Legrees of the southern States found their antidote in Abraham Lincoln.

These slave-owners had their chance to be great—some of them were kind, many of them splendid persons in every other respect—but human chattels were an enormous source of wealth; they supplied cheap labor; they could be sold for big sums; they could be starved and beaten with no hope of redress—so like Pharaoh "they hardened their hearts and would not let them go," but Lincoln was a God-like man, he could not see men bought and sold as animals, and so he risked civil war, and won both the war and the freedom of his black brothers.

Hitler typifies all that was worst in the slave-holders of old—their cruelty and their utter disregard of human values. He too had a chance to be great—to build and not destroy—to lead his people in peaceful paths and foster their arts and crafts, and instead he thought in terms of—Hitler! Against him are arrayed the forces of the democracies and the brains of men like Churchill and Roosevelt. If the past is any criterion of the present, there is no doubt that Hitler will share the fate of the tyrants before him, and Churchill, Metaxas and Roosevelt will go down in history as great deliverers.

Those great men mentioned have all been men of action, as was David Livingstone, who freed many Africans from the terrors of superstition and cruelty and showed them "the way, the truth, the life."

But there have been men and women who have opened the doors of science, of religion, of healing and of art, who were truly great.

Our roads and streets would be in darkness had not Edison opened to us the realms of light; we would still have to depend on mail and telegraph if Graham Bell had not, in the words of Job, "made a girdle about the earth." Radium, with all its possibilities, would have been an unknown quantity had not Monsieur and Madame Curie toiled and sacrificed to give it to the world, and thousands of others known and unknown were great because they counted no sacrifice too great to make in the cause of humanity.

William Shakespeare lives more truly now in the hearts of all lovers of great literature than he did when he lived in the flesh in the days of "good Queen Bess," and Charles Dickens is still a magician who can hold his audience on screen or between book covers, as surely as he did when he first introduced an astonished world to Micawber and Pickwick.

Bach and Beethoven, Chopin and Wagner still exercise their magic spell. There is a greatness which cannot die, it grows with the growth of music and its appreciation, and where these musicians' audiences could once be counted in thousands, today, thanks to radio, they can be counted in millions.

Michelangelo, Raphael, Titian and the others of their crafts who can bring a bit of heaven or nature to our homes, even in reproductions of their great masterpieces, are great too, with a greatness that has nothing to do with time.

And in religion, after Christ, who epitomized the greatness—pity, love, charity and courage—of the ages, there came Paul, the missionary, fearless, full of zeal, John, writer and poet, St. Augustine, St. Francis d'Assisi, Savonarola, Martin Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Booth and a host who have, at home and abroad, carried the cross in their master's name, and routed the powers of darkness.

And women down the ages to Florence Nightingale, on down to our own queen and Mrs. Roosevelt, women have fought evil wherever they found it, lightened the burdens of the poor and forsaken, nursed the sick and crusaded against dark blots on national life—all are great, for they have contributed of the best they have—given themselves to make the world a safer place for today and tomorrow.

Greatness, it seems to me, is the will to serve plus the passion and power to GIVE something worth-while to a needy world.

PERSON COURT

Charged in Court With Leaving Pigs Unweaned

His own witness believed him "intoxicated but not drunk," so Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe, in Newmarket police court Tuesday convicted Percy Hennley, Markham, of driving while intoxicated and sent him to jail for ten days. Besides this sentence his worship ordered that the defendant's driver's license be suspended and his car be impounded for three months.

On Feb. 1, at about 2:30 p.m., Provincial Constable Ronald Hewatt noticed a coach parked on the east side of Yonge St. at Eagle, he testified.

"Who was behind the wheel?" asked N. L. Mathews, K.C., crown attorney.

"It was Percy Hennley," answered the officer. "I noticed that he had difficulty holding his head up. I asked him where he was going and he said that he was going to Markham."

Constable Hewatt said that the accused man was wobbling on his feet and his speech was thick.

"Did you notice any odor on him?" asked the crown.

"Yes, the odor of beer was very noticeable."

"In your opinion was he in any condition to drive a car?"

"No, decidedly not. He was sick in the police station when I brought him there."

Thomas Cook, Triangle Service station, stated that Mr. Hennley staggered on his feet. "His eyes were heavy and I smell liquor of some sort on him," he said.

Chief Constable James Sloss said Hennley was under the influence of liquor when brought to the police station.

In his defence, Mr. Hennley, who previously pleaded not guilty to the charge, told the crown that the reason that he could not hold up his head at the time he was taken from his car was because he had been working all night and was tired. He admitted having four glasses of beer and two sandwiches in Bradford but said that he was not drunk.

"I got out of the car myself," he stated. "The officer did not have to help me. I walked across the street by myself."

Questioned as to why he had parked on Yonge St. the accused said that he was letting two passengers out of his car so that they could get on the Toronto bus.

Frank Arnold, Barrie, who was talking to Mr. Hennley when he was arrested, said that he did not think the accused was drunk. "He had some beer, yes, but I couldn't say that he was drunk. He handled the car from Bradford alright."

"Why did you get out of his car then?" asked Mr. Mathews.

"In order to catch the bus," replied the witness.

"Would you say that Mr. Hennley was intoxicated?" asked Mr. Mathews.

"I wouldn't say he was drunk but I would say that he was intoxicated," replied the witness. "He wasn't off his feet."

Edward Morrow, Barrie, also did not think the defendant drunk. He did not agree with the former witness that Mr. Hennley was "intoxicated but not drunk." "I wouldn't say that he could not walk," he stated.

"I think that all witnesses agree that you were in no condition to drive a car," his worship told the defendant. "Even your own witnesses agree that you had drunk."

Magistrate Woodliffe fined National Grocers Limited, Toronto, $10 and costs for not having a commercial vehicle permit. Constable Ronald Watt testified that he had stopped the truck which was driven by Gordon Smith on the ninth concession of King township.

For neglecting to renew his 1940 driver's license, Earl McMaster, Cookstown, was fined $10 and costs or ten days. Constable Watt stopped Mr. McMaster's truck in King township also.

Magistrate Woodliffe fined Harold Hayes, Camp Borden, $5 and costs of $7.30 or ten days in jail for "driving without due care and attention for other persons using the highway." Mr. Hayes, who pleaded not guilty to the charge, told his worship that he had been driving a number of soldiers to Toronto in his car. At Oak Ridges he attempted to pass a large truck also going south and came into collision with an approaching panel truck driven by Leonard Hume of Queensville.

"I made sure that there were no cars approaching before trying to pass the truck," stated the defendant. "It was foggy and dusk. When I got level with the truck the lights of the panel truck were turned on. All I could do was head for the ditch."

"You say that you made sure that there was no north-bound traffic, but there was this oncoming truck, do you call that careful driving?" asked the crown.

"If he had his lights on I'd have seen him," replied the accused man. "I didn't see him until he was on me."

Phillip Wallace, Oak Ridges, who was looking out of his window at the time of the accident, said that he could not be positive that the lights of the panel truck were on, but said that if they had not been on he would have noticed it on other cars passing had theirs on. He told his worship that the road was icy and snow was piled on the sides of the highway.

Leonard Hume, driver of the north-bound panel truck, stated that he had put his headlights on some time previous to the time of the accident. He said that he was alone in the truck and following the general line of traffic at about 30 miles an hour. "A car shot out from behind the stake-bodied truck and struck me on the right front fender," he stated.

"I can come to no other conclusion but that the lights were on the panel truck," stated Magistrate Woodliffe. "Mr. Hayes, you should not have attempted to pass. You were driving without due care and attention. If you had not attempted to pass, no accident would have occurred."

A charge of mistreating animals against Harry C. Clegg, Whitchurch township, was adjourned until next week for judgment. Dr. William Weatherston, of the Toronto Humane society, testified that on Jan. 30, in company with Constable John Williamson, he had visited a farm on the fifth concession of Whitchurch, which was owned by Capt. Maxwell Porritt, who was in England. He stated that he found 32 pigs in the barn in an emaciated condition and "perfectly lousy." "They were digging into the filth and dirt in the enclosure," the witness stated. "These pigs were the worst I have seen in my experience."

Constable Williamson corroborated the previous witness's statement adding that the sows were in very poor condition and that the animals had to lie on manure.

Mr. Clegg, who is looking after the farm while its owner is in England, gave as the reason for the poor condition of the sows the fact that he had left the young pigs with them for three months instead of weaning them at eight or ten weeks as is usual. He did not think it unusual to leave the pigs with the older animals that long. He said that as his water system had broken down he was unable to give the pigs their usual porridge on the morning that the Humane Society representative visited the farm, but gave them wheat instead.

"It is poor practice to leave pigs on their mothers three months," Dr. Leason, veterinary surgeon of the Humane society, told his worship.

"Would you say that it is cruel to leave pigs with the sow that long?" asked the crown attorney.

"Yes, I would say that it was cruel and unnecessary to leave them for that length of time," replied the witness.

Arleigh Armstrong was counsel for Mr. Clegg.

UPSIDE-DOWN NEWS IS GOOD NEWS

BY RUTH DINGMAN RESS

"Handsome, the Blue Jay, and his friend certainly have plenty of nerve," Young Chips, the Black-capped Chickadee, remarked to his chum, Nutty, the White-breasted Nuthatch. "What's he doing now?" asked Nutty. As he spoke the little Nuthatch reached the bottom of the tree-trunk, and, turning around and upwards again, came back towards his Chickadee friend, this time head up, not dizzily aimed at the ground below.

"The two of them are over there on the ground swiping the corn that was left for the Pheasants," Young Chips told him. "They're even bickering between themselves about it. Look at Handsome fly angrily at his pal."

"But they do look pretty there against the background of white snow, don't they?" said Nutty. "It's mean to take the Pheasants' food though, isn't it? It isn't as if they couldn't find enough for themselves in other places."

"The Jays always take the lazy way," said Young Chips scornfully. "As a matter of fact, I'm feeling just a mite hungry myself, today," admitted Nutty in undertones. "I wouldn't mind finding a nice, well-filled feeding-station. The pickings, or I should say peckings, have been a bit skimpy today."

"The trouble is that there are so many English Sparrows and Starlings to discover the places before we do and to gobble everything up, that I have been quite discouraged lately," complained the Chickadee. "Perhaps our luck will turn sometime, though. A bird never knows what fate holds in store for him."

"Yes, that's very true," agreed Nutty solemnly. "Who would have dreamt that our friend, Slaty, the Junco, would become confused in that last bad snow-storm in the evening and run right into a lighted window and break his neck. I felt terribly badly when the word got around to me."

"It's the sort of thing that might happen to any of us," the Chickadee replied seriously.

"Here come Woody Woodpecker and Mrs. Woody," said Nutty just then. "Hello you two. You look as if you felt highly pleased with yourselves. Has something nice happened?"

"Wonderful!" chirped the two Downy Woodpeckers in one breath. "Someone has at last had a real inspiration," said Mrs. Woody.

"It's a compliment to our skill and cleverness and it certainly shows the others up," Mr. Woody stated.

"My goodness, it does sound mysterious," said Young Chips. "Has someone been telling you Woodpeckers how smart you are, or what?"

"I haven't the foggiest idea what they're chattering about," the Nuthatch was saying in superior tones. "I thought it was something the rest of us might be interested in too."

"Oh, but it is, that's the beauty of it," Mrs. Woody hastened to explain. "It concerns all of us equally. And the nice thing is that we can all take advantage of it — the feeding-station, I mean."

"Why, a feeding-station is nothing new," scoffed Young Chips. "Some people have had them for years. We were just complaining about how the English Sparrows and Starlings took everything from them these days."

"Aha, wait till you hear this, then," said Woody jubilantly. "We have just found a feeding board put out by someone who wanted to feed the better class of birds, and has made sure that he is going to feed them and them only—he's a man with a brain, all right?"

"What do you mean?" asked the Chickadee with interest.

"Just this," said Mrs. Woodpecker. "This feeding board has been placed upside down, with the nuts and fat mixture on the under side, that is."

"That's O.K.," said the Nuthatch promptly. "The chums can all get the food from the underside by hanging on upside down and pecking into it. It will be fine for us."

"Yes, but it's far from fine for the English Sparrows and Starlings," Mrs. Woody positively crowed in her enthusiasm. "They can't get it at all—the stupid things! They are quite baffled."

"Ha, ha, ha, that is splendid news indeed," chirped Young Chips happily, as he saw the point. "We must go and spread the glad tidings. That's once when the chums will have the laugh on their enemies, and will get served first at meal-times."

only by hard work and frugal living... by LENDING all I can to Canada... can I do my part to help to win the war and establish our future security.

I Pledge—

that I will forego the purchase of unnecessary articles... however small the cost... no matter how well I am able to pay for them... which take labour and materials away from the great task of providing goods needed to win the war.

ANGLICAN CHURCHES

ELECT 1941 OFFICERS

Encouraging reports were received at the annual vestry meetings held at the Anglican churches at Sharon, Holland Landing and Roche's Point.

Satisfactory financial reports were received at all three places, with all financial obligations met in full, and small balances carried forward.

At Sharon it was reported that the building fund committee had paid off its debt in full.

At Holland Landing, the Toronto centenary obligation had been met in full. The incumbent, Rev. A. J. Forte, presided at all three meetings.

The following are the officers for 1941: St. James', Sharon, R. J. Rogers, incumbent's warden; W. Grose, people's warden; envelope secretary, Mrs. B. L. Phillips; lay member to synod, W. H. Wilmut; auditors, Gertrude Grose, Mrs. B. L. Phillips.

Christ church, Holland Landing, incumbent's warden, John Kitching; S. R. Goodwin, people's warden; envelope committee, W. Sweezy, Bruce Greig; lay member to synod, John Greig; auditors, Mrs. S. Greig, Mrs. W. Sweezy.

Christ church, Roche's Point, J. Baines, incumbent's warden; J. Sutcliffe, people's warden; lay member to synod, Gordon F. Osler; auditors, J. Bruce MacKinnon and A. H. Walinek; parochial and parish hall committee, the two church wardens, Mrs. J. Badland and Miss M. C. Young.

Boys Acknowledge

Red Cross Parcels

The progressive euchre held by the Sharon auxiliary of the East Gwillimbury Red Cross on Jan. 28 in the hall was a splendid success. The net proceeds amounted to $18.61. The committee were pleased to welcome members from all over the township.

Mrs. John Grant, Queensville, won the ladies' first prize, and Mrs. Eugene Kitley, Sharon, won second prize. R. Miller, Queensville, led the gentlemen, and Joe Hall, Sharon, won the second prize.

The unit plans to hold another euchre on Tuesday, Feb. 18. Tickets are being sold on a fancy quilt donated by Miss Nora Shaw. The draw for the quilt will be held in March rather than on Feb. 18, as previously announced.

Many letters have been received from the overseas boys who acknowledge receipt of their parcels at Christmas time, and later 100 cigarettes. The following are excerpts from these letters: "Thanks a million for the cigarettes, they were sure nice to get."

"Thank the Red Cross for the parcels and cigarettes."

"Gifts like this make you realize what it is to have real friends."

"The Red Cross is certainly on to its job."

"Just to let you know I received the parcel, and am very grateful to you."

"They are sure nice to get."

"The tea bags and coffee sure came in fine."

"I shall remember for a long time what the Red Cross means to a Canadian soldier."

"I needed everything that was in the parcel."

"Thank all the people who are responsible for my receiving a really lovely and appreciated parcel."

These are only a few quotations expressing the gratitude of the boys. Mount Albert is following up their most successful euchre and dance by selling tickets on a radio, the draw to be held on Feb. 14.

East Gwillimbury Red Cross will meet on Tuesday for packing. This will be followed by a short business meeting.

Pupils May Be Excused

From P.T., Parents Told

Re-elected chairman of the high school board for a second year, Fred Chantler presided over the inaugural meeting of the Newmarket high school board in the council chambers yesterday afternoon.

Those present were Mr. Chantler, G. L. Manning, Rev. Dr. W. D. Muckle, J. E. Nesbitt, W. J. Patterson, A. N. Belugin and Secretary Allan Mills.

Representing the Canadiana Germicide Co., Toronto, Ed. May showed the board toilet sanitation equipment which he wanted to install on trial at the high school. This would cost, including servicing, $5.50 per toilet per year, or $120.50 for 23 toilets.

The matter was left to W. J. Geer as chairman of the supply committee.

Mr. Mills reported, on behalf of Principal J. B. Bastedo, that the provincial department of education would give some consideration to the loss of revenue which the school will experience from rural pupils leaving school at Easter.

"Won't that mean quite a loss?" asked Dr. Muckle. "That is something we should follow up."

"Won't that just mean an increase in the per pupil cost, and the rural pupils be charged more?" suggested Mr. Chantler.

"Yes, but as we have more pupils than all the other municipalities together, we will be hit the hardest," said Mr. Mills.

The Newmarket Red Cross was granted use of the high school for a dance this month on the same terms as for the last dance.

"I thank you for the appointment as chairman," said Mr. Chantler. "I welcome the new member, Mr. Nesbitt. He has had quite a bit of experience on boards like this and he will be checking us up if we are not careful."

Committees were named as follows: finance, Manning, Nesbitt; management, Patterson, Muckle, Belugin; supply, Geer, Boag; representative to the Ontario School Trustees and Ratepayers Association and the Associated High School Boards of Ontario, Mr. Patterson.

In view of accidents occurring to pupils at the high school from time to time, Mr. Belugin suggested that parents should be informed that the pupils do not have to take part in strenuous athletics unless they wish to do so. The board members asked that the press emphasize this point for the benefit of parents.

Only physical training is obligatory and pupils may be excused from the more strenuous parts of this at their own request, or they may be excused from physical training entirely if they present a doctor's certificate, Mr. Patterson said. Pupils do not need to take part in other athletics unless they wish, he explained, but it is the pupils themselves who insist on getting into the games and sometimes on undertaking what is beyond their strength.

There is three times as much participation in games at the high school this year as there is usually, for some reason, Mr. Patterson told the board.

On the motion of Dr. Muckle and Mr. Patterson, a resolution was passed expressing appreciation of the way the press had reported the board's meetings during 1940.

STRAND OFFERS AID

FOR WAR PURPOSES

The Strand theatre was offered to the town for patriotic purposes, either for an aluminum wear afternoon matinee with the film donated, or for a Sunday evening after-church talent show, by S. J. Melzer, advertising manager of Premier Operating Corporation, at a town council meeting Monday evening.

Mr. Melzer was accompanied by Roy Rhinehart, manager of the Strand theatre.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales thanked Mr. Melzer and said that the town might be able to take up the offer.

"It is not possible to show films on Sunday," Mr. Melzer said. "For the matinee, if we made a straight money charge we couldn't get the film free."

The matter was referred to the finance committee, which Dr. Dales said would act in future as a special patriotic committee.

SLAPS 'N' SCRAPS

HERE THERE EVERYWHERE

By RALPH M. ADAMS

With the group dying in the junior hockey we look to the play-offs with expectancy.

If the redmen can get going in full stride they might just turn the trick of taking both the Aces and the Aurora boys in the final tussles, which would give them a swell chance at the crown, as this group is one of the strongest "C" loops in the province.

After beating the Sutton aggregation in a brawley sort of affair on Tuesday night in the northerners' own rink, the reds have a real chance for the top spot, as Markham, due to a tie game, will have to be satisfied with second if the locals take Aurora and we hope they do.

Last Thursday night's scramble with Aurora (and it was just a scramble for two periods) really didn't mean much to the league standing, but the moral effect was most desirable for the south crowd, who wanted to trim the redmen on their own ice.

On the penalty bench Thursday night sat two first-time offenders, Brown of Aurora, and McInnis of the reds, who sat on the penitents' row for the first rest of the season. The Aurora boys, however, added another to his misdeeds before the evening was over.

Once again the "Poison Pair," Dickson and Gibbon, were the Aurora team's nemesis, as they were responsible for most of the counters scored and made themselves general nuisances all night to the Aurora defence.

Broughton's marker was a real surprise to Waddell, when he let his drive go while being checked by three Aurora forwards close to the net but the red centreman staggered through the barrage of checkers to beat the goalie cleanly.

Busher Gibbon's goal that tied the score was the gem score of the evening, as he picked up the loose rubber just inside the blue defence and stickhandled his way around both defencemen in a row to beat the goalie with a high shot.

The military camp outfit is moving right along in their quest for the mercantile title in the town league. Sgt. Mecklin has sure rounded up a real squad that will take plenty of beating.

O.S.M., who were late starters in the loop, displayed a real squad last Friday night as they took the town into camp by 6 to 2, while the camp was beating the leathermen 5 to 4.

On the dope to date in the town league it looks like the military camp and Specialty will be in the finals, altho' there isn't a weak sister in the four teams, which should provide a battle to the finish.

Tonight will be the last group game of the season for the redmen, with the Aurorans the

A pretty bride of this month will be Miss Muriel Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Black of Toronto, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fountain of Newmarket, whose marriage takes place on Feb. 15 to Mr. Albert Selby, son of Mrs. W. B. Selby of Sharon and the late Mr. Selby.

Era Will Accept Gifts

For War Victims' Fund

Editor, The Era: The Newmarket Veterans Association wishes to thank you for your assistance so far, and to further enlist your efforts personally and through your columns in the cause of the "British War Victims' Fund."

Our slogan "Newmarket's Hand Across the Sea" conveys the desire and objective we think that we as a community and as individuals wish to take part in, to contribute to the worthy cause of helping the people of Britain, who have suffered and are suffering the results of warfare as it is being waged by the enemy.

The Evening Telegram of Toronto started this worthy fund and is being supported by many individuals and communities, societies and organizations. The Newmarket Veterans are proud to be the sponsors of this project in and around Newmarket and wish our many friends and supporters to know that any money raised for or donated through the Veterans' organization for the British War Victims' Fund is being sent to the central Evening Telegram fund headquarters.

Mr. Harry Lambert, manager of the Bank of Toronto, has very kindly consented to act as treasurer for this fund and will accept contributions large and small from individuals and organizations and will transmit same from time to time to the Evening Telegram fund.

As you know, we also appreciate your help in taking and handling contributions.

Thanking you again,

Yours truly,

SILVER STREAKS AND YOUNG REDMEN WIN

School hockey may have to be played on school days instead of Saturdays, if the experience of Flying Aces last Saturday morning is repeated.

Allan Hopper, goalie for Flying Aces, complained that he had that Saturday morning sleepy feeling and that he would rather stay at home and nap, but his team-mates insisted on his presence on the ice.

The result was that Harold Smart's Silver Streaks took the sleepy Aces to the score of 7-0.

Bob Osborne captained the Aces.

Beverly Rowntree captained the Young Redmen to victory over Jack O'Halloran's Shamrocks by a 3-2 score.

The Irishmen got their two goals in the first period, there was no scoring in the second, and the Rangers, in spite of the loss of a man when Orla Larsen got his leg cut in the first, scored three in the last period.

ENTERTAIN TEAMS FROM TRAINING CAMP

Last Thursday evening the Newmarket hockey team, under the leadership of Sergeant G. Meeklin, invaded the local arena for a practice game against the "D" company team.

The town granted the boys free use of the arena and a good crowd was on hand to see the camp team win 6-2. Lieut. J. D. Matheson and Lieut. D. K. Matheson were in charge of the game. Roy Pearce was the star of the game, netting four goals. Between periods a piano band from C company entertained the crowd. Following the game there was public skating.

A group of Aurora business men acted as hosts to the 51 men at Dawson's Grill, following the fun, where a hot supper was served. Mayor Frank Underhill welcomed the men to the town, while George Duffield also spoke briefly. Major Craig replied for the men. In addition to those already named, Lieut. W. H. Bolger, R. A. Ross and W. E. Armstrong of "D" company were present at the head table.

The business men sponsoring the dinner included Fred Morris, George Duffield, Fred Rowland, W. J. Criner, A. E. Hancock, Anthony Caruso, C. E. Sparks and Frank Lacey.

Tommy Dunn of Orillia, once of Toronto post office, played well. From Barrie came Defencemen Al. Leigh and Tom Marshall. Oshawa provided Roy Pearce and Doug Norris. Whitby sent Walter Hooper. Basil McLaughlin of Penetang, Mitchell of Toronto, Kodaks, H. W. Smith and Vic Skinner, formerly of Northern Vocational C. I. and Ed Smith, Forest Hill, completed the team.

The camp sweaters are brown, bearing in green letters the words Newmarket camp.

CLIFF CHAPMAN IS CYCLING CLUB CHAMPION

A jolly skating party was held by members of the Aurora cycling club on Wednesday evening at the Aurora arena, with their lady friends. Following skating the party adjourned to Dawson's Grill for dinner and dancing. President John Offord and Secretary Bob Benville, convened the event which was attended by about 40 persons. Regret was expressed at the dinner at the absence of various members of the club now on active service. Clifford Chapman, now of the R.C.A.F., was announced as winner of the Dawson trophy which goes to the club champion. Norman Foster, Bob Benville and Jim Hanson were others who came in for special mention.

If permission can be secured from Frank Calder, president of the N.H.L., another match will be played soon. The north-east mounties lined up with the following players: Aub. Fleury, Bill West, Phil Fingold, Ross Avis, Stew. Patrick, Stan Walker, Charlie Dawson, Slim Powell.

ST. ANDREW'S JOINS THREE-CHURCH CIRCUIT

The annual meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was held on Monday evening, with Rev. Ross Cameron of Dovercourt Presbyterian church presiding.

There was a discussion of the proposed amalgamation of the parishes of Thornhill, Richmond Hill and Aurora. There was a vote in favor of it. Under the arrangement each church will retain its own individual identity, but there will be one minister for the circuit and one service in each church on Sunday.

The Aurora services will be held in the morning at 10:30 a.m. Originally it was proposed to include Willowdale church in the amalgamation, but this idea was abandoned. A joint meeting of the boards of the three churches will decide upon a minister for the three churches. It is not known at what centre the new pastor will reside and this will be a matter for the new incumbent to decide.

Of the three churches Aurora is said to have the largest congregation. Pending an appointment to the circuit, Rev. M. E. Burch of Eversley Presbyterian church will act as interim moderator. Rev. Mr. Cameron was warmly applauded for his work in the matter. The new arrangement will ease the financial burden on each of the three congregations.

Officers of the church elected were: board of sessions, Marshall Rank, John G. McDonald, J. B. Greig; board of managers, chairman, M. Rank, Chester Osborne, Robert Leggett and R. James (for three years) and Edward Dailey, George Baldwin, Charles Malloy, N. Rogers, H. Irwin Watts; clerk of sessions, J. G. McDonald, treasurer, R. C. Osborne; Sunday-school superintendent, C. Cameron MacDonald.

M. H. Willson, for many years connected with the affairs of the church, was honored at the meeting by being made an honorary member of the board of managers. Through the kindness of George Baldwin printed financial statements were made available to the congregation. The Ladies' Aid were given a vote of thanks for their work throughout the year and their splendid contribution to the coal fund of the church.

AURORA MEN TAKE INDUSTRIAL COURSE

Four or five men from here are taking the industrial course at Northern Vocational school offered by the government in an attempt to provide skilled workers for Canada's war industries. Men taking the course are paid $12 per week while receiving tuition and are then placed as needed by government employment agencies.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TEAM LOSES TO GRADS

Although out-numbered in players, the Aurora high school grads had the satisfaction of taking honors from the school basketball team in their annual match on Friday afternoon by a score of 12-10. The grads only had five players on hand when the game started and Lynn Sparks and Fred Pugsley were pressed into service. Pugsley is taking a course or two at the school and is eligible for either team.

The checking was very close and the marksmanship wild at times. Fred Pugsley and Ray Lloyd took high scoring honors, with six of their team's total each. Delroy Babcock handled the whistle. All the grads were members of last year's school teams and so were in better condition and had more team-play than is usual in such games.

Grads: guards, Dudley Wilcox and Kerr; centre, E. Jennings; forwards, Fred Pugsley (6) and Ray Lloyd (6); alternates, Doug Kyle and Lynn Sparks (1).

School: guards, Bill Thompson and Ron Kyle; centre, Stephenson; forwards, Bruce Davis (2) and Bill Griffith (2); alternates, Howard Follott, Campbell (2), Bill Babcock, Doug Nisbet (2), Harvey Fingold and Pete Hughey (2).

MORNING'S TEAM WINS

The non-bowlers captained by John Morning defeated the Aurora lawn bowlers by six points in a four-game match last week. Charles Fry, captain of the bowlers, scored a brilliant 295.

SOLDIERS VISIT HOME

Dale King of the R.C.A.F., who is stationed at Brandon, Man., is visiting his mother, Mrs. W. C. King, Yonge St. Lieut. W. C. King, Dale's brother, who is on the staff at Bradford camp, spent the weekend at his home.

DOWN THE CENTRE

The final group standing will be decided for the local C group following tonight's titanic struggle in Newmarket arena. Markham Aces definitely clinched first place with 17 points and as they meet the third-place team the two local clubs are battling it out for this honor.

Aurora must win to take second place and a comfortable berth against Sutton in the semi-finals. The Aurorans would end up in that case with 15 points against the Redmen's 14 credit markers. A tie or win will reverse the situation and leave Rowntree's men a clear path to tackle Sutton. Newmarket will end the season with between 14 to 16 points.

Sutton's lone win over Newmarket will play an important part in the final tabulation, as those two points might have put the others in first place, in which case they would have battled it out with Aurora. A win or a tie will probably be what the Rowntree boys want and if this materializes the loss will not have been costly. The situation is a mutual and couldn't have been better arranged if the boys had played it close to the chest thataway.

Monday's game saw Markham triumph by virtue of greater playing strength. Aurora, riddled by illness, lacked four players, including Captain Harry Pearce. Mabley and Rogers were the only reserves on hand, which left only four forwards to carry the attack. By the last period, when the debacle occurred, the locals had only six players ready for service, but, despite this, they tied the score and then faded after their last big effort.

Ken Holmesshaw was a decided improvement in the whistle-tooting, although a penalty to Rogers helped Markham get the needed break. Last week's Newmarket game was directly lost as Del. Beaumont drew down a penalty in the dying moments of the game. Bob Morrison, who has worked in two games in which Aurora played, is not blamed by the club officials. They know his work is honest and they're rough stuff but were of the accidental type, but you can't get all the breaks and as the late Joe Penner used to chuckle, "there'll come a day."

Bob Bangay turned in a four-star performance for the Aces and if they are going to be stopped this season, it will be Bangay who will have to be handcuffed, and don't overlook Lawrie either. Markham have team play now which they lacked earlier in the season and on their own ice, especially, are practically a certainty.

Games not goals decide the playoffs. Markham rammed home the largest score of the season, 15-1, against Sutton last Friday and are really beginning to click. Charlie Sweeney still has time to get some passing plays down. One or two practices will do it, and the team is determined and confident of their ability. Jimmy Walker says, "Thumbs up boys, you can't get bad breaks all the time and it's better to have them now than when we're playing for keeps next week."

Rowe of Markham is fast getting that second line whipped into shape and he won't take a back seat from many forwards in the loop.

Head-eye Dickson must have read our column last week, for, just to show his scorn, he was again Johnny-on-the-spot to pop in the chip that spelled pay dirt. It's getting to be a habit with him, too, as it's the third or fourth time this season he's annexed the winning tally.

Gord Bone will take down the fistful honors of the group for he's had the most majors of anybody in the group. You can reserve us a seat if he and Coburn of the Lawrie tribe hook up again in the conclusion of a three-year feud.

Pickering College took a tasty pasting from St. Andrew's on Saturday afternoon. Chief improvement in the red and whites' game was the goaltending of Rowe. He looked like a sieve a few weeks ago, but Sweeney has him at the peak now. Charlie did the same thing last year with Jocko McClellan.

Tommy Myers is handling the Newmarket preppers, but there aren't any on this year's team up to his standard. Bob Bourke, with a compass hung around his neck, or was it a watch, explained that "while we haven't a hockey team, when it comes to basketball—wow." The Pickering boys are currently out in front of the private school eagers.

Grant Cook and Gordon Fauning, two members of last year's hard-battled Tiger crew, are playing intermediate hockey this year.

Wilkie Fleury, who last year was one of the stars in the English hockey circuit, has not said anything about hockey in his recent letters and it is to be presumed that the boys overseas are too busy getting ready for the big rush to have much time for hockey. Some of the arenas across the pond are likely destroyed by enemy bombs.

We knew there were three R's for school kids but Dick Irvin, silver-hatched coach of Les Canadiens has come up with three C's for hockey players, both young and old. First of these is confidence followed by confidence and courage.

As we heard Dick give it there were five C's, the fourth was contract and the fifth Canadians. Sparky Vail is now playing coach of Hollinger in the Timmins senior loop and doing very well, thank you. He doesn't lack for company, for Red McArthur, Chief Higgins and others of the Redmen of '32 are playing in the same circuit.

The clock stood still! Twice this season there has been some argumentation over the antics of the Newmarket arena clock. Personally, we think the time was O.K. and we arrived in time to put the jinx on the Aurora boys. But it does leave room for Markham and Aurora fans to argue. We hope that the clock's fixed for tonight and there'll be no more optical illusions. Last week, you will recall, when the game ended it looked as if there was still a minute of play left.

Barrie arena has a clock, too, that's not infallible. Both last year and this Aurora teams played from one to two minutes past the 60 mark. Fortunately it made no difference.

High school juniors look really good in the interscholastic loop. We'll be surprised if the seniors get out of the cellar.

The cycling club held their annual dinner last night, which we were forced to pass up for the second year in a row. Somehow or other there's generally something booked when we could spend a nice soft evening with the boys.

Council Told Fire-Fighting Facilities Not To Be Trusted

EMPLOYEES OF TOWN ASK FOR INCREASE IN WAGES

Monday evening saw the town council taking stock for the year and receiving numerous requests for grants, increased wages and departmental supplies.

Aurora public library requested a grant similar to last year of $1,050.

The Aurora Horticultural Society requested their annual grant, pointing out they had been cut to $50. Council decided that all applications for grants from the municipality must be in the hands of the finance committee by March 1.

"We will strike the budget and tax rate in March and we must have all data available," said Deputy-Reeve C. E. Sparks, chairman of the committee. The library board was made an interim grant of $200.

A bill for $60.39 for groceries and coal supplied two families in quarantine drew considerable comment. The bill was approved by Chief Constable Dunham, who acts as inspector for the board of health.

"Apparently we have to supply food and heat when a family is quarantined and no one can work," said the mayor.

"I haven't been able to find anything but an inference in the act that forces us to do so," said Town Solicitor L. C. Lee, "but we haven't much alternative if the board thinks it advisable."

"It is like relief," said Councillor Dr. G. A. C. Guntton. "If the people come into funds later we could collect this amount from them."

A representative of a Toronto firm that supplies fire-fighting equipment gave council a demonstration of the efficiency of a fire extinguisher. An aluminum ladder was also shown, as were designs for a new fire-truck. Price for a 50-foot ladder was quoted at $370. A wooden ladder of the same type would cost $281.

"I wouldn't want to send a man up our present 50-ft. wooden ladder," Fire Chief Jones reported. "We haven't a ladder capable of reaching our highest buildings."

AND HERE'S TO THE LADIES!

All the buying of War Savings Certificates is not being done by the men. Not a bit of it. The ladies are doing their full share, and this on top of their Red Cross work, and all other war activities—God bless them.

We offer our warm congratulations to the ladies of Newmarket for the inspiration and example of their efforts. Before the war savings drive is over, we firmly believe that there won't be a home in this community that is not pledged 100 per cent to buy war savings certificates.

We are proud to pay this tribute to our friends and customers who are working so faithfully and so conscientiously to insure the success of the war savings certificates drive in Newmarket.

Rev. M. E. Burch's messages are outstanding. On Sunday he preached on Peter's denial of Jesus, "I know not the man," and a bystander's remark, "You are a Galilean, for thy speech betrayeth thee," or his accent showed it, or his brogue was that of a Galilean. His subject was "The Christian's accent."

PEPPER AND SALT

By "PEP"

Tonight's game with Aurora is the last of the regular schedule to be played in Newmarket and should be a blood and thunder battle. We may see ketchup all over the place. The gentlemen of the press, some with ten sheets of clean paper, others with a couple of used cigarette packages, some with five well-sharpened pencils, others with a couple of pencil butts thrown away by a conscientious schoolteacher, and perhaps some even wearing skirts (women reporters) and others pants, will be there in full force.

In anything except hockey, we could feel safe as far as Aurora is concerned, but their hockey players can't be taken lightly.
Yet, I think Newmarket will come out decided victors and if they don't you can buy me a new hat, the folks are complaining about the monotony I wear at present. So, no matter who wins, I stand to come out on top. Reminds me of the remark a hockey customer made of a bushy-haired fellow who was blocking his view in the next seat. He said: "He should cut it off and start from scratch."

Speaking of butts, as I was in the last sentence of the first paragraph, cigar butt snipers tell me the reason they know times are getting better is because the butts are getting longer. I wondered if they could tell the weather that way. They said that they could forecast the weather backwards by noticing the condition of the butts as they pick them up. If they happen to be soggy then it rained yesterday. They figured that the only people interested in their "backward" forecasting are people with bad memories who want to be sure they are right when they tell the boys at the office that "It sure was a wonderful day yesterday, eh, fellows."

The butt boys think the only way they can forecast the weather frontwards is to get the smokers to throw their butts away two days ahead of time.
Then they can tell you what it's going to be like tomorrow.
Interesting? Well take it up with the next nut who comes along.

Merv Broughton seems to have come into his own in a hockey way. He was the spark plug of the sparkling Dixon, Gibbon, Broughton line against Aurora
Thursday last. Merv skated miles all night.

He has also skated miles in other games, but never seemed to be able to hold the puck long enough to get a goal. Something like "always a bridesmaid but never a bride." However, Merv was a bride or rather a goalgetter on Thursday. If he can keep his play up to this mark through the play-offs it will help Newmarket considerably.

Teams at the high school are manned with only skeleton crews these days, what with the measles going the rounds. The students just come and go with the spots and they're not sun spots. If the spots are there, they go, and if they're not, they come. And if you wonder how you would look with dimples, just cultivate the measles. You get a week's trial free of charge.
If you then like the idea of dimples you can get them in the corner drugstore, in the ersatz section.

One thing the war will do to Newmarket is to improve the skill of its dancers. With dances being held all over the place, we should be able to trip the light fantastic with the greatest of ease. And with the number of restaurants showing their faces in Newmarket, it shouldn't be long before we can look sophisticated when we order "schlizer-wist" for our meals. I think I heard of that food, if it is a food, in the movies. However, as long as some salt of the earth still remains in us our heads won't be turned too far from the realities of life.

KESWICK

Marks 82nd Year By Giving Church Address

In spite of threatening weather
the services in the United church were splendidly attended on Sunday. Rev. Gordon Lapp was in charge. Visitors at the evening service included Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Huntley and family and Mrs. Emanuel Nelson.

At the morning service in the United church on Sunday the clerk of the session, William Marriott, will tell what the Christian life and the church have meant to him. A churchman all his life, and a church official since young manhood, Mr. Marriott celebrates his 82nd birthday today, Feb. 6. The minister, Rev. Gordon Lapp, will conduct the service.

The evening sermon will be based upon the famous hymn by Rev. George Matheson "O love that will not let me go." This will be the concluding sermon in the series on hymns.

The Young People's Union of Keswick United church met at the church on Monday evening, when Miss VanNorman, the popular school teacher, gave an interesting paper on a new Canadian industry, flax growing and processing. Miss Marion Main presided. Next Monday evening's program is in the charge of the citizenship convener, Russell Stork.

The Sutton and district ministerial association met at the Keswick United church manse on Monday, with the president, Rev. P. S. Powell of Sutton, presiding. Rev. A. J. Forte of Roche's Point reviewed a recent book, "Christians in a World at War." At the close of the meeting Mrs. Gordon Lapp served tea.

Dr. Gilbert Robinson and Mrs.
Robinson of Toronto were weekend guests of Rev. and Mrs.
Gordon Lapp.

Miss Annie MacKinnon from the town-line south was a weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacKinnon.

Mr. Russell Stork has been ill with flu.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Angus King a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley (nee Gladys King).
A silver tea, under the auspices of the supply committee of the Woman's Missionary Society of Keswick United church, will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 12, from 2 to 5 p.m., standard time,
at the manse. Mrs. Gordon
Lapp, Mrs. C. E. Willoughby,
Mrs. Cecil Grant and Mrs. Percy Mahoney are the hostesses. A very cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the community.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. of Keswick United church will be held on Thursday, Feb.
13, at 2.30 p.m. Miss Joy Marritt, first vice-president, will be in charge of the meeting. Reports of the recent presbytery meeting in Toronto will be given.
A hearty invitation is extended to all.

president, gave a very inspiring speech. "We should consecrate our lives to our war effort," she said.

Mrs. A. J. Forte of Roche's Point gave a splendid talk on child discipline, in which she emphasized the old-fashioned virtues. Mrs. Fisher gave timely hints on seasonal diseases, hints which were helpful and greatly appreciated. Mrs. Walinck of Roche's Point gave a wonderful demonstration on the making of artificial flowers from crepe paper. Delicious nut breads and tea were served.

The next meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute will be held at the home of Miss Joy
Marritt on Wednesday afternoon,
Feb. 26.

Virginia

Pte. Jack Arnold of the Elgin Regiment, Toronto, has been with his wife and family, also relatives here.

Mrs. Edward Arnold, who has been confined to the Sutton hospital with a hip injury for some time, returned to her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham, Eleanor and Jean, of Toronto, and
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paul, spent Sunday at the Abraham cottage at the beach.

The Women's Institute held a euchre party at the home of Mrs.
Joseph Laviolette last Friday evening.

Mrs. Troyer, who has been visiting friends near Peterboro, returned home last week.

Jack Arnold and Mrs. Arnold, Joan and John, spent Sunday at the Hadden farm.

Mrs. N. Laviolette visited her daughter, Mrs. T. McCrae, Newmarket, on Sunday.

The community is sorry to learn that Mrs. Herman Kidd is in a Toronto hospital and hope she will soon be well and able to be at home again.

Mrs. Jack Elliott is also wished a speedy and satisfactory recovery from her operation.

Mrs. John Banks of Vivian passed away after a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Allan Graham, who had intended to stop farming, will carry on for another year.

Although it has been a lovely winter, the changes in temperature have been so abrupt the people have suffered with heavy colds, flu, pneumonia, etc.

Vivian Sunday-school is held at 10.30 each Sunday, and regular church service is at 7 p.m. A welcome is extended to everyone.

Chas. Pipher is at present working with Albert Smith.
Herb Phoenix is still working in Toronto, but intends coming back to his home in Vivian in the spring.

Mr. Ratcliffe's staff of wood-cutters have the wood on Allan Graham's lot almost cleared, and will soon be looking for work on farms and elsewhere.

QUEENSVILLE
RED CROSS SOCIETY
WILL HOLD DANCE

The Women's Institute will hold a community party in the schoolhouse on Friday evening,
Feb. 14, in aid of the British War Victims' fund. The evening will be spent in playing croquinoles, Chinese checkers, etc., followed by a good program. All are invited to attend.

The Queensville branch of the Red Cross is busy planning for a big red, white and blue dance, to be held in Belhaven hall on Friday, Feb. 28, with music by Art West and his orchestra.

room in the United church is open each Thursday afternoon for workers. All are invited to come and lend a helping hand.
Toronto can talk about its "black outs" which they are planning for next week, but Queensville has had "black outs" for months. On Wednesday nights, when the stores are closed, where would you find a darker street. Art's Service Station leaves a floodlight on all night. If it weren't for that, no one could find their way around.
Street lights would help considerably.

A good congregation was out on Sunday to hear a splendid sermon by Rev. H. Shannon on "Confession." Miss Ruby Strasser chose for her soprano solo the familiar hymn, "Softly and Tenderly," much to the delight of all present. An invitation is extended to everyone for next Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Queensville Y.P.U. held an excellent meeting last Sunday evening with Miss Helen Kennedy as guest speaker. Miss Kennedy gave a very forceful talk on "What Does Christianity Mean to the Youth of Today."

Next Sunday evening the meeting will be in the charge of the missionary department, with

Mrs. Roy Arnold as the speaker.
All are invited.

Mrs. J. B. Stone returned home last week after spending a couple of months in sunny California.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stickwood attended the funeral service of Mr. Fred Cole in Brantford one day last week.

A number from here attended the military parade in Newmarket on Sunday.

Remember, February is war savings stamp month. Serve by saving.

Roche's Point

Ladies are asked to remember the Valentine tea at Mrs. Wallinck's home in aid of the Institute. Everyone is welcome.

Miss Elsie Badland was home
for the weekend.

Mrs. P. J. Cole is not very well and friends hope she will soon be better.

Miss Edna Boyd spent Saturday in Toronto.

Misses Frances and Margaret Baines of Toronto were home
for the weekend.

Mr. Morton Rae was home for the weekend.

Ice-cutting is in full swing just now and the ice surely looks good. There is lots of snow for packing this year.

The Red Cross room on Thursday afternoon is a very busy place to get into. Between 25 and 35 workers bring in articles and get more wool or material.
Just now layettes, seamen's socks and knitting for the land force is the main work, and it is surprising how quickly the monthly quota is filled.

Through the kindness of A. H.
Walinek, an oil company gave a fine showing of films in the parish hall on Friday evening, Jan.
31. The pictures shown were a "avetogue through Africa,"
"Safari on Wheels," an educational film in technicolor, "Fricion Fighters," and a deep sea fishing picture, "Flying Fishermen." J. Baines and J. Sutcliffe spoke words of deep appreciation for the splendid and informative program which was enjoyed by everybody present.
A. H. Walinek acted as chairman.

A sing-song led by Rev. A. J.
Forte rounded out a very happy evening. It was also announced that the W.A. would hold another social evening, taking the form of a euchre, on the evening of Feb. 12, the proceeds to be in aid of the upkeep of the parish hall.

Conductor: Madam, you'll have to pay for that boy.

Old Lady: But I never have before.

Conductor (hotly): That doesn't matter to me. He's over 12 years old, and you'll have to pay his fare or I'll put him off the car.
Old Lady: Put him off! What do I care? I never saw him before!

Elmhurst Beach

The community is pleased to learn Miss Marion King is home again after her operation in York county hospital, and hope she will soon be able to be out again.

"Every duty, well and honestly done, is a contribution to victory."
THE PRIME MINISTER OF CANADA.

TRIBUTE TO MARY

Mary is the "voice with a smile". Mary is the efficient person generally known as a telephone operator. As an operator she knows much about telephone equipment
— how it should be used and handled.

But Mary is best known for her personality — for her coolness in emergencies — for the grand things she has done time and again, ignoring her own danger, intent on one thing only — to keep the standard of telephone service high.

We pay respectful tribute to Mary and all the girls who work with her. Her devotion to her job sets a standard of public service. Tactful, patient and courteous, Mary is the medium through which this Company and its public are always in touch. She plays a vital part in Canada's war effort.

MOUNT ALBERT DOGS CHASE WOUNDED FAWN ON STREET, DIES

The Red Cross held a quilting in the town hall on Thursday, when 54 ladies were present and 12 quilts were almost finished. The ladies have several more which they hope to finish before packing next Monday. The ladies were pleased to have Mrs. H. M. Aitken, who was visiting in Mount Albert, drop in and see the work that was being done.

There was a bit of excitement in town last Friday morning when several dogs chased a young fawn through the street, and the men who heard them took it into the barber-shop, as it had been wounded and the game warden was called.

It was discovered it had been shot in the bush back of the village where it seems it has been staying around for some time. It seems too bad that a harmless animal had to suffer for the sake of someone who would even shoot out of season.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart and Marian spent Sunday afternoon at Camp Borden visiting Pie. Don Stewart.

Last Friday was an important day at the public school, when all the teachers of the district gathered to observe the local teachers, Miss Campbell and Miss Dike, teach, and also have a meeting together. At the same time, Mrs. H. M. Aitken, of radio fame, paid a visit to the school to see the result of music as taught by Mrs. M. E. Lyons, and the children all acquitted themselves very nicely. The teachers served lunch to their guests. On Monday morning Mrs. Aitken's broadcast had Mount Albert as the theme and everyone was proud of the village school pupils and teachers, not forgetting the rhythm band, with Kathleen Oliver as leader.

The February meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Thursday, Feb. 13, at the home of Mrs. I. Morton with hostesses, Miss E. Hayes and Mrs. E. Watts, with a Valentine party and program. The roll-call is "your favorite song."

Guardsmen Guy Williamson, Reg. Willbee and Hugh Price of the Veterans' Guard of Canada, have returned after a trip to Halifax to bring back German prisoners, and are now stationed at a northern Ontario internment camp.

MOUNT ALBERT Decide Canvass Better Than Garden Party

The senior Women's Institute held another of their delightful euchre and dance evenings in the hall on Thursday evening and Miss Vi Oldham and Donald Stiver were lucky prize-winners. The proceeds amounted to $32.

The annual meeting of the United church was held on Wednesday evening when a very nice supper was served at 6.30 p.m., but only about 50 were present. After supper Rev. R. V. Wilson was chosen as chairman and W. T. Lloyd as secretary. H. Harmon was elected to the board of elders and the stewards elected were Ed. Watts, H. Broderick, Douglas Campbell, Alfred Parks and Walter Rate. All organizations of the church had good reports. The W.M.S. raised their allocation of $275 and also sent a bale of clothing, etc., and the mission band, under Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Theaker, provided interesting missionary programs for the children and sent $30 to the presbyterial.

The Sunday-school has 125 on the roll, with 18 teachers and officers and raised $234, most of which goes for supplies to keep up the school.

As part of the religious education program of the church the minister teaches half an hour of Bible each week to four public school classes at Mount Albert, Union and Scott schools.

The Y.P.S. has an average attendance of 35 and raised $33. The W. A., with a membership of 29, raised $201, and paid $175 to the mortgage fund.

The treasurer's report shows receipts of $3,633. The total membership is 185 and there were eight removals by death and seven marriages in the congregation during the last year. It was decided that there would not be a garden party as the canvass was much better and so much less work. J. Tilley was appointed auditor for the next year.

The Sunday-school held their annual "at home" on Friday evening, Feb. 7, at 6.30 p.m., when supper will be served and there will be a good program for the kiddies. All parents should plan to come with the children.

The hall board is having the usual dance in the hall on Friday evening, Feb. 7, and on Friday, Feb. 14, will hold a Valentine dance with prizes. All are welcome.

On Friday, Feb. 21, the stewards of the United church are holding a concert in the town hall. All proceeds will go to the British war victims' fund.

What do you know. Fresh rhubarb all the time growing in the coal bin. Believe it or not. Ask G. Barnes, who has enough for himself and his neighbors.

NORTH GWILLIMBURY LOSES 15 SHEEP IN ONE NIGHT, GETS $265

The second regular meeting of North Gwillimbury council was held on Feb. 3. The council meeting was preceded by a meeting of the community hall board. The reeve and deputy reeve were appointed to engage auditors for the 1940 township accounts. K. M. R. Stiver of Newmarket was appointed township solicitor and Jas. Sinclair was re-engaged as weed inspector. Road insurance for the ensuing year was awarded to Perry Finch at the same rates and conditions as last year. Snowplowing was taken up with the road superintendent. The service given had not been satisfactory and Mrs. Smith, with Mr. King, were given authority to make better arrangements, if possible. The matter of a claim against the township by Stanley Breuls was referred to the township solicitor.

If T. Bab, handicapped by a severe cold, was on the job and made an effort to present some further grievances concerning the township police. His lengthy list of charges against the police officer were on the table and were considered by the council. Legal advice which had been obtained regarding the matter was also taken into account. In view of the facts that the matter had been dealt with by the 1940 council, of which Mr. Bab was a member, that the material contained in the charges was Mr. Bab's personal affair rather than township business, that lack of police protection was not evident and the charges were general denied by the police officer, the council took the attitude that they should not take action regarding it.

They felt that if the constable had injured or insulted Mr. Bab it was a matter which Mr. Bab could take to court, where the verdict would be beyond dispute and settled for good. If the court should convict and penalize the constable, then the council would have cause to take action concerning him. Serious mischief by dogs was in evidence when Murray Munro presented a claim for 15 sheep killed in one night. Mr. Hamilton, the valuator, placed the award at $205. Accounts ordered paid were: R. J. Stark, maintenance Keswick street lights, $70; community hall lights, $10; Fred Peel, registrations, $11.75; cartage paid, 50 cents; J. Stevenson, stamps, $9; Ralph Sedore, $4.50; County of York, hospitalization, $27.12; E. Willoughby, $1; Jack Morton, $1; N. King, $1; Carl Morton, $75; Murray Munro, $285; L. E. Hamilton, $3; Mrs. F. Sedore, refund, $150; Road Voucher No. 2, $232.50. Relief and welfare accounts, Chas. Pringle, $18; Township of York, $2.57; R. Switzer, 65 cents; Rowe's Grocery, $8.42; D. J. Davidson, $64.22; Ira Wood, $19; A. Wallick, $11; J. E. Stevenson, $84.24; N. W. Burrows, $29.91; S. ILL ONLY A MONTH, GEORGE STILES DIES

Ill only a month or so, but suffering a slight stroke last fall, from which he never fully recovered, George Stiles died at his home on the sixth concession of North Gwillimbury on Tuesday, Jan. 28, in his 85th year.

Mr. Stiles was well-known and liked in the Mount Pleasant section of the district, where he had farmed all his life, and during which time he spent about 25 years as an implement agent.

George Stiles was one of a large family and was the son of Matilda Hamilton and Martin Stiles. He was an ardent Presbyterian and a member of Mount Pleasant congregation, though he never held church office. In politics, he was a strong conservative.

Mrs. Stiles, the former Helen Munro, daughter of the late John Munro, predeceased her husband seven years ago.

Three daughters, Miss Iva R.N., at home, Mrs. Arley York and Mrs. Bernard Davidson of Belhaven, and three sons, Martin of Toronto, Ross living near Mount Pleasant, and Lloyd on the home farm, survive. Of the large number of brothers and sisters, only two of the brothers and one sister survive. Robert, on a neighboring farm at Mount Pleasant, Martin in Toronto, and Mrs. Mercer in Toronto.

Mr. R. McCullough, minister of Mount Pleasant and Sutton churches, and Rev. Gordon Lapp of Ravenshoe and Keswick United churches, conducted the funeral service on Thursday, which was widely attended and showed the esteem in which Mr. Stiles was held. Interment was made in Queensville cemetery.

MRS. ALLAN THEAKER DIES IN 79TH YEAR

Born in Scott Township on Feb. 8, 1862, Mabeth Eliza Theaker died at her home in Mount Albert on Jan. 25, after an illness lasting two years. She had been confined to her bed for the past ten months.

Mabeth Eliza Rowland was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland of Mount Albert and was married to Allan Theaker on Dec. 17, 1878 at Quaker Hill, by the Rev. W. J. Smyth, and they lived on the centre road, where the Graham farm is now. She attended the United church.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, E. S. Theaker of Manolick and H. W. Theaker of Mount Albert, and one daughter, Emma, (Mrs. Scott Crane).

The funeral service was held from the residence on Jan. 27. Rev. R. V. Wilson conducted the ceremony. Interment was made in Mount Albert cemetery.

The pallbearers were L. Pearson, Ethan Haigh, Ed. Haigh, Jas. Hammett, Donald Crane and Murray Crane.

VETERANS' EUCHE AND DANCE DRAWS CROWD

A fair crowd attended the dance and euchre held in the town hall last night in aid of the British War Victims' Fund sponsored by the Newmarket Veterans' Association.

Euchre prize-winners were: ladies' high, Mrs. N. Burling, prize donated by a Toronto firm; gentlemen's high, Floyd Pegg, Sharon, prize donated by Elcan Campbell; ladies' lone hand, Mrs. E. Hoag, Bradford, prize donated by Mrs. Wm. White; gentlemen's lone hand, Vince O'Connor; consolation prizes, ladies, Mrs. Curtis; gentlemen, Percy Hutchinson. Pine Orchard.

Winner of the spotlight dance was Aircraftman Mervin Wainman and partner.

The proceeds of a dance held in the Walnut-Rendezvous by Roy Middlebrook on Tuesday night were turned over to the Newmarket Veterans' British War Victims' Fund, and netted the fund $25.
